History

We've come a long way since 1918 when a group of godly women knelt to ask God for a Bible School in Columbia, a Bible School that would educate Christian men and women to minister to the mill workers. The massive mills that dotted the Columbia landscape were a testament to the industrial revolution here in South Carolina. These women are a testament to the mills and to us, the faculty staff and students of CBU. They are our heritage.

History is something we often take for granted, something that happened in the past, but the past lives. It lives in the buildings and the names associated with the buildings, it lives in the people who have driven down the Boulevard, slept in the dorms, studied in the library, and had lunch on the grass. We surround ourselves with monuments and artifacts to remind us of the distance we have traveled and of those who have gone before us.

Few of us take time to notice the plaques mounted on walls in our buildings. In Memorial Dorm's lobby a plaque tells us how it received its name. The Dorm is dedicated to the memory of "all whose lives were taken...in Christian martyrdom" specifically to the six alumni who are represented in the five plaques hanging there.

Few realize that the Rossi student center is named after the founder of Tropicana Orange juice who donated generously to this school. How many know who the Fisher building is named after? Or the Schuster building? What about the one building most of us have studied in, the Ridderhof Media Center. And fewer still know that the prayer towers are modeled after the hotel where Columbia Bible College originally met.

The Finial, this yearbook, is itself named after something historical. A finial is an ornamental top-ping to a tower or pinnacle. These finials were saved by Marguerite McQuilkin when the Colonia Hotel was demolished in the early 1960's and now the odd shaped, rust colored finials stand between the administrative building and the library to remind us of our heritage and our history. Lest we spend too much time looking back, we must remember that history exists for us to see God, to watch how He moved, and to rejoice in His work. However, today, the future lies ahead of us and that is why we are here, To know Him, and to prepare ourselves To Make Him Known.

From the President

Dear CIU graduates:

As you graduate and move out into the world to serve the Lord, I want to write to you about two things: holiness and history. History, because that is the theme of our 2006 Yearbook. Holiness, because that is the theme we have followed this year as seen in our CIU 2005/2006 year verse:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts...” (Isaiah 6:3).

In this postmodern age, secularized Western culture “tolerates” Biblical Christians, thinking that our faith is a figment of our imagination that we rely on as a psychological crutch. Instead, it is wonderful to realize that our faith is based on historical facts which occurred in time-space history: the virgin birth of Jesus Christ, His sinless life, His vicarious death, His bodily resurrection, His post-resurrection appearances, His glorious ascension and His promise that He will return in time-space history to rule and reign forever. No, these are not things that someone “made up.” These are the rock solid historical facts on which our faith is based. As you leave CIU, continue to stand on these historical facts, and share them with everyone you meet.

I hope this has been a year during which you have grown in holiness, and that you will continue to grow in Christ-likeness and victory over sin. A holy life is the basis of an effective witness, not to mention that it brings great glory to God! And isn't it wonderful to know that holiness is possible because of history? None of us are capable of being holy in ourselves, but we can be holy as we rely upon the person of Jesus Christ and His finished work on Calvary, rooted in history. Thank You, Lord!

Whether you move out into the marketplace, or into a full-time vocational ministry role, or into missionary service, my prayer is that you will continue to “know Him and make Him known.” We will miss you, and we'll be praying for you!

Yours for His glory,

George W. Murray
President

Dr. William J. Larkin

Growing up the eldest of five children in a Presbyterian pastor's family and making one big move - from Pittsburg to Chicago, helped Bill appreciate the city. During his years at Roosevelt high school, he enjoyed the cultural stimulation of classes and activities as a member of a predominantly Jewish student body. He played clarinet in the band and served as co-editor of the school's newspaper in his senior year. Increasingly he could see the need to be a more effective witness for Christ in his school. It was during a church high school retreat when his father read the Isaiah 6:8 passage that Bill received God's call to full time Christian service.

To prepare for the pastorate, Bill went to Wheaton college, majoring in history and taking three years of NT Greek, then he went to Princeton Seminary. Upon graduation, he married Edna Dennis. Together they served at the First Presbyterian Church of Olney in Philadelphia. That loving, spiritual mature congregation helped them both in so many ways - through its emphasis on missions and its evangelistic efforts in its ethnically diverse neighborhood. that Bill received God's call to full time Christian service.

Believing that God was calling him to help more people prepare for pastoral ministry and missions, Bill decided to continue his studies at the University of Durham. He earned a Ph.D in New Testament in 1975.

Since March of 1975 Bill has had the privilege of teaching students here at CIU whom God has called - a joy he shares with all his colleagues. Early in his teaching experience, President Robertson McQuilkin asked him to write a book about Biblical interpretation historically and in present cross-cultural settings. After that commentaries on Acts, and other books and articles have followed. These efforts have helped him in teaching NT studies, Greek exegesis and cross-cultural studies so that graduates can love Christ Jesus and communicate His word to others. Opportunities to teach overseas and weekly in the local church all continue to provide chances to reach other people in new places.

He and his family are thankful for the fellowship of the students, staff, and faculty of CBS as well as those of the larger CIU body. Through the years, some of Bill's students have assumed that he taught his children, Thomas and Priscilla, NT Greek from the cradle! Not so, but he has encouraged them to seek God's call and has happily supported them in Christian service and missions trips. Still, having his own daughter on campus, in chapel, and in his own Greek III class is a special blessing.

A large, bold, sans-serif sign is mounted on the wall, reading "ROSSI STUDENT CENTER". The sign is slightly angled upwards. Above the sign, there is a balcony or walkway with a metal railing. The background shows some trees and a clear sky. The overall composition is a low-angle shot, looking up at the building.

This has been a great year! I have gotten to work with some of the best people and each has contributed something amazing to this yearbook. Ashley, you don't know what a relief it is to know that someone as talented as you will be taking my place. You have been such a help to me this year and I know you will do great when you take the reins next year! Alyssa, thank you for all your hard work and for taking some of the best pictures we have ever had. Joy, you have been my life-saver. Without you, I don't think we would have anywhere near the amount of pictures we need. You have been incredible! Erin and Kim, I am so thankful for all the work you put in to this book. You have made it look great and in doing so, have taken a huge burden off me. I am forever grateful for you! Joe, I am so glad that I had the opportunity to work with you. I am grateful for all the work you put in! Gayle, you have been awesome! I don't know what I would have done without you here to check and recheck the work that was done. You have been awesome! And last, but not least, Dr Dan aka dad, you have been wonderful. Thank you for letting me edit this book for the past three years. You have given me the opportunity to explore the creative side of my self and to display it in this book. Even though you have been my teacher, my supervisor, and my yearbook advisor, you will always be first and foremost dad! I love you!
